

Edoardo is an insightful lawyer with a practical approach to the legal issues behind all businesses

Edoardo is a partner in the Bird & Bird Corporate Group in Milan.

He assists local and international clients in corporate and commercial matters, and also provides advice on litigation and competition law. His clients' activities range from manufacturing to trading and services.

Edoardo's corporate experience includes advising on a range of matters: from mergers and acquisitions and start-ups to assistance in stock purchase agreements, sale of assets, deeds, dismissals, transfer of undertakings, pre and post-closing activities. He is also involved in drafting joint-venture agreements for merger and spin-off transactions. Regarding commercial matters, he advises clients on contractual and dispute resolution issues in a broad range of industry sectors.

Before joining Bird & Bird in 2007, he was a partner at Studio Legale Tributario in association with Ernst and Young and, prior to this, worked at Andersen Legal in Milan.

Edoardo has written several publications on corporate and competition law.